

3. Movants no longer represents the FSAT and no longer has authority to represent the FSAT or any of the individual defendants in this matter.

4. Daniel Carter has been retained as the FSAT's counsel in this matter and will enter his appearance on their behalf.

5. Counsel for Plaintiffs were notified of Movants' intent to withdraw and indicated they did not object to such withdrawal so long as an entry of appearance was filed by FSAT's new counsel. Said entry of appearance was filed today. [Doc. No. 136].

6. Currently there are no pending or upcoming hearings set in this case.

7. Movants' withdrawal will not cause any undue delay, prejudice or injustice to the above captioned case.

WHEREFORE, Counsel prays that the Court enter an order allowing them to withdraw for the above captioned cause and for any further relief to which the Court deems them entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

Joshua Wells, OBA #22334
